

ENERGY FUTURES
— INITIATIVE —

COLLETE HONORABLE

Advisory Board Member

Colette Honorable is a member of Reed Smith's Energy and Natural Resources Group in the Washington, D.C. office. Honorable is a highly regarded policy maker in domestic and international energy sectors, recently serving as Commissioner at the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC). She was nominated by President Barack Obama in August 2014, and unanimously confirmed by the U.S. Senate in December 2014 for a term that expired in June 2017. At FERC, Honorable focused on reliability oversight of the bulk power system, cyber and physical security, oversight of wholesale markets, transmission planning and cost allocation in regional transmission organizations, gas-electric coordination, renewables integration, energy storage integration and valuation, enforcement, ratemaking, infrastructure development, and enforcement matters. Honorable joined the FERC from the Arkansas Public Service Commission (PSC), where she served since October 2007, and led as Chairman from January 2011-January 2015.